Statement of historical significance and description of property:

B726

Rectangular bungalow-style box with N/S axis. Low hipped roof with 2-foot plain boxed cornice. 4-inch shiplap siding. Concrete front porch with mini-roof extension over front door on solid wood decorative brackets. House rests low on concrete foundation. The roof has composition shingles.

There are very unusual full length windows – like French doors – four pair on south side and one on the east side.
